RE: Jacqueline Medina v. National Railroad Passenger Corp.,
Docket No. 1:19-cv-02267 (ER)

Dear Judge Ramos:

We represent defendant National Railroad Passenger Corporation d/b/a Amtrak ("Amtrak") in the above-referenced matter. In accordance with Your Honor's Order dated April 6, 2020 (ECF Doc. No. 11), Plaintiff Jacqueline Medina ("Plaintiff") and Amtrak submit this joint letter apprising Your Honor of the status of this matter.

While awaiting a Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 16 initial conference and scheduling order, the parties have been engaged in document discovery since September 2019. Both parties have completed initial Rule 26 automatic disclosures. On or about December 20, 2019, Amtrak served responses to Plaintiff's document demands and interrogatories. Plaintiff seeks Defendant's clarifications and supplements to those responses. Plaintiff owes Defendant responses and will do so within two weeks. The parties anticipate scheduling depositions upon the completion of document discovery, subject to the COVID-19 pandemic circumstances at the time. To date, the parties have not engaged in any settlement discussions.

Should the Court have any questions or require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Respectfully Submitted,
